Intermission
10:40-10:50

We are homeward bound. He who loved us so much as to die for us hath builded for us a city... It will not be long till we shall see Him in whom our hopes of eternal life are centered. And in His presence, all the trials and sufferings of this life will be as nothingness.... Look up, look up, and let your faith continually increase. Let this faith guide you along the narrow path that leads through the gates of the city of God into the great beyond, the wide, unbounded future of glory that is for the redeemed. The Faith I Live By, 362

WELCOME! to Brevard Seventh-day Adventist Church Homecoming. May you be truly blessed as we remember how God has led us in the past and how He will lead us onward to the day of His soon return!

FELLOWSHIP DINNER; MUSIC AND MEMORIES: Please stay and enjoy a delicious fellowship dinner in the fellowship hall following the worship service and then a program of music and memory-sharing in the sanctuary.

QUIET BAGS for church service are available for children to use. Pick up in the office and return there after church. Each bag is a little different. There is also a bag with activity books for older children and youth in the office.

THANK YOU TO ALL who have helped make this day special: Jeanne Larabee, Ruth Bradley, and Rose Sikora for beautiful flowers and decorations; Linda Kuist for the delicious cake to help us celebrate; and the musicians—Leana Anders, John Bartholomew, Kathy Brannan, Eddie Chapman, Laurie Johnson, Sarah Johnson, Pastor Ralph Henderson, Isaac Ray, Micah Ray, Ed Roberts, Pastor Bob Self, Ruthie Self, and Phyllis Wical—blessing us with heavenly music.

CONNECTIVITY WITH THE CHURCH IN OUR CITY
- Lord, I lift up the Church in our city. Thank You for creating the body as one unit made up of many parts. Help us understand the value of each part as You have arranged them. We confess that we've minimized other parts. Forgive us, for we are all baptized by one Spirit into one body. Help us to work at being one: concerned about one another—suffering with and rejoicing with other congregations as appropriate. (1 Corinthians 12:12-26)
