*Christ takes His soldiers to an eminence, and shows them the vast confederacy arrayed against them. He reminds them that they are not warring against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
He reminds them that they are fighting for eternal life. The heavenly universe are marshaled for the conflict with Christ, the Commander of the forces of heaven, at their head. Infirmities compass humanity, but in the strength that Christ gives, we may be more than conquerors.
"Be of good cheer," He declares;
"I have overcome the world."
