Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh

I have no gold, frankincense or myrrh
To offer the King of kings;
He has no use for the treasures that were,
No need for material things.

So what if the Savior were born today?
What gift are you willing to give?
The One who would take our sins away,
For the chance that we might live.

Would you speak of Him in a public place,
Or turn your head in shame?
Would you tell the world of His Mercy and Grace,
Or be sorry that He came?

What would you give the Redeemer of sins
To let Him know His worth?
He who was before time begins,
The Savior of the earth.

He came to earth with a price to pay,
Leaving His throne above;
And the only gift that He asks today
Is the world's undying love.
